Announcement of Upcoming Event: The Beacon Boogie

OCTOBER 29, 2011

5:00 - 10:00 PM

The term 'Boogie' is derived from 'mbugi' a Congolese word meaning "Devilishly Good." We hope you'll have a devilishly good time out in the neighborhood on October 29th for the first BEACON BOOGIE. The Beacon Hill Merchants Association is sponsoring five bands in five venues for five dollars. No charge for kids 12 and under.

THE BEACON BOOGIE will take place on North Beacon Hill, Seattle: all venues are on Beacon Avenue S., within a half block of South Hanford Street. Come out to celebrate Beacon Hill's diversity of food, art and music! Start the evening with chef Jerry Corso's delectable pizza and a gypsy jazz trio at Bar del Corso from 5:00 to 7:00 pm. Then boogie over to one of our other venues to enjoy a range of Cuban son, folk and jazz from 7:00 to 10:00 pm. Drop in for a quick hair cut at Abe's Cuts & Kicks and top it off with a hot drink at Victrola Coffee Roasters. You are also invited to check out the community Day of the Dead altar at Quetzalcoatl Gallery where they will be hosting a reception for the Almendra Sandoval Photography Exhibition.
